

Imagine* by John Lemon

Listen carefully to this classic song and correct the lyrics below.

Good luck!

Imagine there's no heathen

It's cissy if you cry

No help below us

About us only sky

Imagine all them people

Leaving for the bay...

You may say I'm a dreamboat

But I'm not the lonely one

I hope Sunday you'll join us

And the bird will be a swan.

Imagine there's no counties

It isn't half to do

Nothing to kill a fly for

And no religion true

Imagine all their people

Living life in peas...

Imagine no positions

I wander if you're canned

No need for creed or anger

A motherhood of bran

Imagine all that people

Sharing all the word...

You may say I'm a dreamboat

But I'm not the lonely one

I hope Sunday you'll join us

And the bird will leave a swan.
